

NoteBookCast - Tutoriel

Rendez-vous sur le site : <https://www.notebookcast.com/>

The screenshot shows the NoteBookCast website homepage. At the top left is the logo "NoteBookCast Broadcast your ideas!". To the right is a "Contact Us: support@notebookcast.com" link. A navigation menu includes "Home", "Create a whiteboard", "Join a Whiteboard", "Blog", "Features", "Help", "Sign up", and "Login". A blue box with the text "Créer un compte" has an arrow pointing to the "Sign up" link. A yellow box contains a message: "Dear visitors, due to the dramatic increase of visitors to NoteBookCast in the last weeks we have increased our platform resources on the 2nd of April 2020 to attend the demand. We are committed to do our best to support our users needs during the current exceptional situation. you can download a fast reference of the white-board menu from this link." Below this is the main heading "A real-time multi-user Whiteboard in your browser" in yellow. A blue box contains the text: "Ou créer directement un tableau collaboratif, sans inscription sur le site - Pour une activité ponctuelle (on peut faire une capture du tableau pour garder une trace)". A yellow button at the bottom center says "CREATE A MULTI-USER ONLINE WHITEBOARD".

The screenshot shows the "Create a new whiteboard" form. The title is "Create a new whiteboard". The form has the following fields and annotations:

- Nickname: A text input field with the value "Maîtresse". A blue box above it says "Votre nom tel qu'il apparaîtra" with an arrow pointing to the field. A blue box to the right says "Choisir la taille du tableau" with an arrow pointing to the "Board size" dropdown.
- Board size: A dropdown menu with the selected option "Galaxy Note 2014 landscape orientation".
- Board title: A text input field with the value "Nom de mon tableau". A blue box to the right says "Donner un titre au tableau" with an arrow pointing to the field.
- Board description: A text area with the placeholder text "Board description".
- Submit button: A blue button labeled "Submit". A blue box to the left says "Créer le tableau" with an arrow pointing to the button.
